

Thursday Morning Study:

Our study this year, 2022-2023 will be on the books of Thessalonians, Timothy, and Titus. We open up with Lavinia Spirito's introductory presentation entitled "The Our Father" in Hehman Hall on Thursday, September 8, 8:45-11:00 AM.

Lecture Description:

Everyone knows the Our Father, right? It is perhaps the most recognizable Christian prayer. But, do we really know what we are praying? Do we realize that by praying it we commit ourselves to the utter trust in God and radical forgiveness of others? Join us as we unpack the layers of the Lord's Prayer.

- Please print out the registration form on our website
- Registration fee is $50, make check to CTK
- Mail registration form with check by Sept. 1st if possible so we can put participants in their new group with the Holy Spirit's direction

In these letters Paul writes about personal qualifications for clergy and holiness tips for everyone else; he refutes false teachings that were leading people astray with dangerous ideas; he gives us a thumbnail sketch of the Second Coming of Christ; and expresses the warm heart of the father towards his beloved children in the faith. Join us as we unpack the loving instruction of a faithful pastor and leader.
