

Patristic Period

Perpetua 203

Felicity

Agnes

Lucy

Cecilia

Anastasia

Monica, mother of Augustine

Paula

Helena, mother of Constantine

Scholastica, sister of Benedict

Clement, Linus, Cletus, Sixtus, Cornelius, Cyprian, early popes all died martyrs

Ignatius, 105

Polycarp, 155, student of John

Justine Martyr, 160

Apollonius, senator executed by Commodus

Martyrs of Abitene: sine Dominica non possumus

Irenaeus, 201

Lawrence, 258

Anthony of the desert, Eastern monasticism

Basil

Gregory of Nissa

Gregory of Nazianz

Ephrem liturgical music and poetry 373

Damasus 1st veneration of martyrs

Athanasius defended against Arians

Ambrose

Augustine, defender of faith

Cyril of Alexandria, 444

Jerome, translated the Bible into Vulgate

John Chrysostom

Benedict, Western monasticism

Low Middle Ages

Walburga, (710-779) helped evangelize Germany with Boniface

Gregory VII, 1085, challenged Empire for autonomy, reformed priesthood, celibacy and simony

Martin of Tours

Isidore of Seville, 600, converted Arian Visigoths

Patrick, converted Ireland
Boniface, sent to Germany
Leo the Great
Gregory the Great, 604
Augustine of Canterbury, sent to Britain
Climacus, 649, wrote The Ladder to Paradise

High Middle Ages

Liutgarde, 1246, Cistercian mystic
Margaret of Cortona, 1297, reformed mistress of a nobleman
Julian of Norwich
Gertrude of Bingen
Colette, 1381-1447, Franciscan reformer
Chiara or St Clare, founder of Poor Clares
Francesca Romana, 1384-1440, wife, mother
Bridget of Sweden, 1373, wife, mother, brigittine, mystic
Rita, 1381-1457
Catherine of Siena, mystic
Joan of Arc
Bernard of Clairvaux, 1153
Norbert, 1134
Francis, 1226
Anselm
Anthony of Padua, 1231
Louis of France
Dominic, 1221
Thomas Aquinas
Bonaventure
Albert the Great

Renaissance

Angela Merici, educated woman
Catherine of Genoa, 1510, wife, mystic, practical administrator provided for husband's mistress and daughter
Roberto Bellarmino
Carlo Borromeo
Peter Canisius, wrote first Catechism
Filippo Neri, 1515-1595
Aloisio Gonzaga, died in 1591 at the age of 23, Jesuit
Francis deSales

Counter Reformation

Louise de Marillac, 1660, Daughters of Charity
Teresa of Avila, 1582
Mary Magdalen de'Pazzi, 1566-1607, Carmelite
Thomas More
John of the Cross
Camillo de Lellis, first hospitals
Ignatius of Loyola
Francis Xavier
Vincent de Paul

Enlightenment

Margaret Mary Alacoque, 1690, Sacred Heart
Martyr Carmelites of Compiègne, Mother Superior, permission to die
Bernadette, 1859, Lourdes
Catherine Laboure', 1876, Daughter of Charity, Miraculous Medal
John de Brebeuf, 1642, missionary, martyr
Martin de Porres, 1639
Peter Claver, 1654
Louis de Monfort, 1716, devotion to Mary
John Baptiste de la Salle, 1719, Salesians teaching order

Modern

Elizabeth Ann Seton
Josephine Bakita
Therese of Lisieux
Katherine Drexel
Mother Cabrini, 1917
Faustina
Benedicta of the Cross, Edith Stein, 1942, died at Auschwitz
Gianna Molla
Teresa of Calcutta
Alphonsus Liguori, 1787
John Vianney
Damien of Molokai
Don Bosco
Solanus Casey, 1957
Brother Andre Bessette
Padre Pio, Pray and don't worry
Josemaria Escriva
Piergiorgio Frassati, 1925
Maximilian Kolbe, 1942, died at Auschwitz

Doctors of the Church

Ambrose

Jerome

Augustine

Gregory the Great

Athanasius

Basil Gregory Nazianzene

John Chrysostom

Ephrem

Hilary of Poitiers

Cyril of Jerusalem

Cyril of Alexandria

Leo the Great

Peter Chrysologous

John Damascene

Isidore of Seville

Bede

Peter Damian

Anselm

Bernard of Clairvaux

Anthony of Padua

Albert the Great

Bonaventure

Thomas Aquinas

Catherine of Siena

Teresa of Avila

Peter Canisius

John of the Cross

Robert Bellarmine

Lawrence of Brindisi

Francis de Sales

Alphonsus Liguori

Therese of Lisieux